KADIMA BULLETIN BOARD

A note from David Loud: The Health Care Caucus this Thursday is a very important kick off to a campaign to win health care for everyone in Washington and also to add to the pressure for action at the federal level. All Kadima members are encouraged to attend.

Speak Up for Quality, Affordable Care this Summer

Tomorrow! You're invited to participate and help shape the principles and values we want in Washington's health care system by attending the event taking place in your community this week.

This summer, a series of public meetings called the "Washington Health Care Caucuses: Speaking Up for Quality, Affordable Care" are being held across the state by the Healthy Washington Coalition. The upcoming meeting in your community will give you a chance to talk about what you want in a reformed health care system.

Seattle Health Care Caucus - June 19th

6:30 - 8:30 PM

University Christian Church (4731 15th Ave. NE - map)

Lend your voice to the effort to achieve quality, affordable health care

Elected officials have been invited to each event to hear what you, their constituents, have to say about the principles and values we would all like to see in Washington's health care system. Come to the event and be part of the community that is committed to improving the health care system in Washington State.

Up to $1800 off Jewish Summer Camp tuition is still available! Pass it on. Visit One Happy Camper.org and enter Referral code 40013. Or call 1-888-888-4819. Program sponsored by The Foundation for Jewish Camping and the Jim Joseph Foundation.
