KADIMA B'YACHAD CLASS FOR PARENTS-AND-TOTS TOGETHER

Still enrolling... next class is Saturday, October 18th

New! Kadima b'yachad (Forward together):

Kadimaniks with your kidniks; an inclusive parent-tot learning, sharing, growing together program.

For tots ages 1-4 (5 considered) with single parents, inter-faith parents, same-sex parents... for all parents raising Jewish children.

For Jewish and non-Jewish parents, this parent-tot program will serve as an introduction to Jewish song, stories, traditions, and progressive Jewish values, supported by Kadima's Reconstructionist values-based curriculum developed in partnership with parents.

The next gathering is on Saturday, October 18th.

Program registration is open but limited to 7 families. Contact the office today to reserve your family's spot in this new Kadima program (206) 547-3914.

KADIMA BULLETIN BOARD

PORNOGRAPHY OF POWER: The Anti-War Art of Selma Waldman

September 22 – October 24

The M. Rosetta Hunter Art Gallery

Seattle Central community College

1701 Broadway, #2116

Following the most recent declaration of the “War on Terror” in 2001, Selma Waldman* (1931-2008), an artist with a life-long commitment to social justice, created an extraordinary series of 100 drawings. The Black Book of Aggressors, a profound and relentless response to the degradation of human beings and the systematic abuse of power in Abu Ghraib, Guantanamo, and elsewhere. Two “walls” from this series, along with earlier work, comprise Pornography or Power. With searing line and jarring color, Waldman explicitly exposes the atrocities of war. The exhibition also includes a selection of earlier works, and an evocation of her intense working environment including an unfinished work surrounded by photographs, notes, and sketches.

Gallery hours: 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., Monday – Friday; 5 p.m. – 7 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday Evenings.

The gallery is located at the north end of Central's Atrium Cafeteria in the main building at the corner of Broadway and Pine. Rainer Waldman Adkins is Selma Waldman' son.

• Middle East Peace Camp Art Installation

Kadimanik Maia Brown, Leader-in-Training at the Kadima-cosponsored Middle East Peace Camp for Children has an art installation on Broadway. Go see "We Were Strangers until We Met on Capitol Hill" in the storefront at 118 Broadway (between Denny and John, across from Dick's).

The 42nd Jewish Reconstructionist Federation Biennial Convention will be held in Boston November 13-16

If you've been to a JRF Convention, you already know that it's a wonderful celebration of Reconstructionism, with communal prayer, learning, fellowship and more. Those of us who are "regulars" at convention make lasting friendships, deepen our connection to the movement, and broaden our understanding and enjoyment of what it means to be part of the JRF. If you've never been to a JRF convention, now is the time to experience this great event for yourself! Highlights include:

- A Plenary Session on Identity, Community and Leadership
- Four major forums on Next Generation, Movement Roles, Congregational Life and Tikkun Olam.
- Sixty workshops
- Shabbat Services
- Screening of *Praying with Lior
- Networking Opportunities and Affinity Group Meetings

Convention information is available at jrf.org/convention.

We know it is challenging for those of us in the west to travel to the east coast, but it's really worth it. Some scholarships are available to help defray the cost. Please consider going, and encourage your to go friends as well!

It is with great excitement that Camp JRF and No'ar Hadash announce the following No'ar Hadash events for Reconstructionist teens:

Western Teen Kallah - B'nai Brith Camp (Portland, OR), May 15 - 17, 2009

North American Teen Kallah - Location TBD, July - August, 2009

No'ar Hadash Israel Experience - Exact Dates TBD.

More info will be available soon at noarhadash.org. E-mail noarhadash@jrf.org with any questions.

- Mothers Circle provides information and support for moms from other backgrounds who are raising Jewish children. Contact Marjorie Schnyder at (206) 861-3146 or familylife@jfsseattle.org (Jewish Family Service).

COMMUNITY EVENTS

- Lunch with Tavis Smiley, October 10, 12:00-1:30 pm. Solid Ground's 8th Annual Luncheon, at the Washington State Convention Center. Tavis Smiley is the host of Tavis Smiley on PBS and The Tavis Smiley Show on PRI. To reserve a table contact Zanne Garland: (206) 694-6862 or zanne@solid-ground.org.

Support the annual fundraiser for the Homeless to Renter Program (H2R), a program of Temple Beth Am administered by Jewish Family Service. H2R provides funds to assist families with the cost of moving into rental housing. To date, the fund has supported 86 families, including 200 children. The major fundraising event, Simchat Sukkot, will be held at Temple Beth Am on October 19 at 7 p.m. The featured speaker will be Allison Eisinger, executive director of the Seattle/King County Coalition on Homelessness. A supper buffet, sweets, wine and beverages will be served. The minimum donation for the evening is $36. RSVP by October 13 to (206) 525-0915 or temple@templebetham.org. If you can't attend but would like to contribute, send a check made out to Temple Beth Am, note H2R on the memo line, and mail it to 2632 NE 80th St., Seattle, 98115.

SOLDIERS OF CONSCIENCE, a documentary film by Gary Weimberg and Catherine Ryan will air on the critically acclaimed PBS documentary series P.O.V, on Thursday, October 16, 9 p.m. local time (Channel 9).

When is it right to kill? In the midst of war, is it right to refuse? Eight U.S. soldiers, some who have killed and some who said no, reveal their inner moral dilemmas in Soldiers of Conscience. Made with official permission of the U.S. Army, the film transcends politics to explore the tension between spiritual values and military orders. The film follows the stories of both conscientious objectors and those who criticize them. Through this clash of views, the film discovers a surprising common ground: All soldiers are "soldiers of conscience," torn between the demands of duty and the call of conscience. Winner of four Best Documentary awards 2007-2008.

- Iraq War Researcher Les Roberts to Discuss Iraqi Civilian Death Count and the U.S. Press. Please join the University of Washington in welcoming Iraq War researcher and epidemiologist Les Roberts on Wednesday, October 22, at 6:30 pm in Kane Hall (UW Seattle Campus), room 130. US Congressman Jim McDermott will attend to introduce Professor Roberts. Free, open to the public and no tickets will be required for admission. 2008-2009 Walker-Ames Lecture Series

Bagels, Coffee & Conversation

History in the Making – Election 2008 with Erin Hart, Progressive Talk Radio Host

Tuesday, October 28, 10:00 - 11:30 am

Erin Hart will speak about the historic 2008 election, the candidates, why politics is personal, and what this election will mean for our country. For seven years Erin was on News Talk 710 in Seattle and now is host of AM 760 Progressive Talk radio in Denver.

Location: Temple De Hirsch Sinai Foyer (1441 16th Ave., Seattle). RSVP: Ellen Hendin at JFS. Call (206) 861-3183 or Endless Opportunities at endlessopps@jfsseattle.org.
