JEFF HALPER SPEAKS IN SEATTLE

Monday, October 6 at 6:00 p.m.

Saint Andrews Episcopal Church
111 East 80th Street, Seattle (parking in rear)

A fundraising event to support the continued work of ICAHD...there will be a light supper at 6:00 Program will begin at 7:00.

Suggested donation $15.00.....everyone welcome.

ICAHD (The Israeli Committee Against House Demolitions) Director Jeff Halper was one of 44 activists from 17 nations who successfully sailed from Cyprus to Gaza aboard two fishing boats in defiance of Israel's blockade. The group was met by 40,000 joyous Gazans. As the only Israeli Jew on this historic challenge to Israel's blockade, Jeff was arrested and spent the night in an Israeli jail upon his return to Israel. 'What we've done shows that people can do what governments should have done. If people stand up against injustice, we can truly be the conscience of the world.' --Jeff Halper. (continued)

JEFF writes: We have just heard that our request for re-funding by the EU has been rejected, in high probability because of pressure brought to bear by right-wing Israeli neo-cons who have campaigned obsessively against our funding while threatening publicly to close us down. So we now face a real crisis. Those who want us 'gone' make a mistake in assuming that we will close if our funding is withdrawn. I promise you, no matter what, ICAHD will not be silenced.
